You may be one of such consumers who are highly influenced by the advertisements on the products as seen on TV. However when you decide to buy one or some of the products on which the ads were displayed you may have some questions in your mind. Such questions may relate to the privacy policy, prices, quality, shipping, and all such related issues for procuring as seen on TV products.

Is your privacy secure with as seen on TV stores?

Your privacy is your priority. Therefore your provider online or offline in the brick and concrete stores should be such who would respect and give due regards to your privacy. Leading providers of as seen on TV products like the as seen on TV express never sales or even shares with others information relating to their customers.

The mailing address that you provide is used only for the product delivery and contact and not for any other purpose. They also make the data and information you provide secure with SSL encryption and you can feel safe to navigate and deal with such providers online or in face to face deals.

Order placements with the as seen on TV stores

You can place your orders for all in stock items like the Peddy Paws and HD Vision wraparound with your credit card and the same will be provided to you within the specified time span of 4-6 weeks including the transit time. Orders could be placed with the provider through email, FAX or Phone subject to a few conditions.

Payments could be made using any major credit or debit cards, money order or cheque. In case of cheque however you may have to wait till your bank confirms the balance in your account with them so that the cheque is honored. You can also use the snail mail orders. If the order cannot be shipped within the next 30 days, the provider will notify you through email.

Order cancellation, returns and exchanges

You can also cancel the orders placed for any item say like the Ad Rocket placed with the provider before its actual shipping. Such cancellation cannot be made via telephones. For any question you have the 24/7 customer support open where you can ask and get clarifications on any point you require. You will have these supports on all days excepting the Sundays usually.

You can return or ask for an exchange of the purchased item within 30 days of its receipt. However you will not be getting back the shipping and handling charges. The company who provided you the articles such as ProCede will of course verify them to find out whether they are in their original condition or there has been any wear and tear.

Transactions are normally made in US dollars. Sometimes the provider companies may levy certain goods and services taxes for overseas transactions. There are however certain items that can not be returned. These are the special promotional offers like the Jewelry Television Coupons.

All said and done you have nothing to fear about the as seen on TV products and their procurements. If you choose a good provider the transactions will be safe and secure.
